

Foothills At-Large Council Member - Two Year Term

Foothills Branch of The Mountaineers - November 2023

Goal of Position

The five At-Large Council members for the Branch are active and voting members of the Executive Committee of the Foothills branch. They are expected to represent the membership of the branch at branch meetings and serve on ad hoc, program and/or activity committees as they are able, supporting a thriving and forward-looking branch.

Activities and Responsibilities

- Attend all branch council meetings and contribute actively to council deliberations.
- May serve on branch level ad-hoc, administrative, program or activity committees to develop ideas and resolve decisions or issues.

Length of Service/Time Obligations

The At-Large Council member should expect to serve a term of two years. Foothills Branch Executive Committee meetings occur monthly to bi-monthly, with email exchanges and discussions between that can require consideration and response. The At-Large Council members are voting members of the council so their attendance is very important, since a quorum of more than 50% of voting members is required to make binding decisions for the branch. The At-Large Council member might expect to contribute an average of 6-8 hours of time per month to this role, not counting participation in other committees.

Qualifications Sought

- Commitment to the branch and The Mountaineers vision.
- Active in some aspect of the Foothills branch activities, communities, programs and issues.
- Positive personal outlook.
- Follows-through on commitments while avoiding personal over-commitment.
- Good listening and communication skills.

Each situation and opportunity is different. No previous experience in this kind of role is required.

Support and Reporting

The At-Large Council members will work with a committee of dedicated and friendly Branch Council members who share a love of The Mountaineers. Mountaineers staff in every role (development, marketing, leadership development and support) are available to assist anyone in the position.
